

your fists, hiss “yes” or high-five spectators when your opponent makes an error.

DO THE RIGHT THING

Apologise if you win a lucky point or if you accidentally hit your opponent with a ball. Do not directly target a player’s body, especially those at the net!

FOCUS ON YOUR MATCH

Keep your attention on the court – don’t chat to spectators, interrupt a game to answer your mobile phone, file your nails at the change of ends or do anything else that might distract your opponent or delay play.

LEAVE THE TANTRUMS TO THE KIDS

Don’t have a tantrum if things aren’t going your way. Marat Safin, who once said: “You can destroy one racquet. You can destroy a chair. But you can’t destroy a racquet and a chair in the same match. Otherwise this is the tennis of a sick person,” clearly attended the wrong tennis finishing school. Don’t be like Marat Safin.

CONGRATULATIONS

Shake hands firmly and congratulate your opponent at the end of the match.

SHUT THE GATE!

If you’re the last to leave please shut the gate.
