Tennis Australia National Insurance Program

As an operator or volunteer committee of an affiliated venue or club, engaging in tennis activities, you are required to have a minimum amount of risk protection.

Tennis Australia and the state/territory tennis associations jointly facilitate the National Insurance Program and have engaged with Marsh, a leading global insurance broker, to arrange the Program. The Program simplifies the insurance buying process for affiliated clubs saving you time, effort and money. The cover provided is designed specifically for the tennis community.

The National Insurance Program is provided under a group policy which means all current Tennis Australia members and entities affiliated with Tennis Australia and state/territory associations are covered.

What's Covered in the Program?

All tennis activities are covered, including all training, competition, tournaments, fundraising activities, club social events, come and try days, holiday programs, meetings and any other club sanctioned activities.

The Program comprises the following areas of cover:

Public Liability and Professional Indemnity*

The cover provided is as follows:

PUBLIC LIABILITY

- $30,000,000 coverage limit for any one occurrence with an excess of $1,000
